THE

PREFACE

AMong the ſeveral reaſons that might be produc'd for the Publication of this Catalogue I ſhall mention but one, and that is of the Nature of ſuch as may be given for Books of Heraldry, viz. to make Known the Qualification of particular Perſons upon account of Academical Degrees, and (what is conſequent thereunto) their proper Station in point of precedence: for (as we are told by Logan in his Honour Civil Chap. 1.) next to Knights Batchelors are Colonels, Serjeants at Law, and Doctors. All Batchelors of Divinity, Law, and Phyſick, all Maſters of Arts, Barreſters in the Inns of Court &c. may equal (and ſome of them precede) any Gentleman that hath none of theſe Qualifications. Agreeable whereunto is what we find in the Preſent State of England; viz. That all Deans, Arch-Deacons, Chancellors, Prebends, Doctors of Divinity, Law, and Phyſick, Heads of Houſes in the Univerſities, uſually take place next to Knights, and before ordinary Eſquires and Gentlemen. All Batchelors of Divinity, Law, and Phyſick, and Doctors of Arts, commonly called Maſters of Arts, all Barreſters in the Inns of Court &c. may equal if not precede, Gentlemen that have none of theſe Qualifications.

As for the Station of Graduats among themſelves according to our Statutes, that of Batchelors of Divinity, Law and Phyſick in their reſpective Faculties, depends upon their Preſentation; and ſo likewiſe does that of Doctors, except Grand-Compounders, who have precedence of all others of the ſame year and Faculty. All Doctors of Divinity take place of all Doctors of Law and Phyſick; but thoſe of Law and Phyſick take place of each other according to the time and order of their Admiſſion, and Inception in the Act. The true Station of Maſters of Arts among themſelves is according as they are rank'd by the Proctors at Act; whoſe power in that matter is nevertheleſs limited by certain reſtrictions (to be found in our publick Statutes) one of which is that Grand-Compounders be put firſt of the year. Batchelors of Law in the Courſe of Preaching come after Maſters of Arts that are two years their juniors, reckoning from the admiſſion of the former, and Inception of the latter.

*An Aſterisk thus * denotes a Grand-Compounder for that Degree to which it is affixed; and he is one, who has Forty Pounds* per annum, or upwards, in temporal Eſtate or Preferment, which muſt be held for term of life at leaſt: and if it be ſpiritual preferment, it is to be rated, not according to the real Income, but according to its valuation in the Kings Book; but no Place or Preferment in the Univerſity makes a man a Grand-Compounder; and every one before his admiſſion to any Degree is obliged by Vertue of his Oath taken to the Univerſity to diſcover whether or no he be poſſeſſed of ſuch Eſtate or Preferment. Upon account of the extraordinary Fees a Grand-Compounder pays, he has ſpecial honour done him by the Univerſity, with ſeveral Priviledges which he claims, one of which (as we have already obſerved concerning Doctors and Maſters) is to precede all thoſe that take the ſame degree degree that year. It must be acknowledged that all Grand-Compounders have not here that mark of Distinction put to the Degrees for which they Compounded, and that therefore no notice ought to have been taken of any, since no certainty could be had of all of them: but some progress had been made in printing of this Catalogue before it was discovered that such an accurate account, especially for the two or three first years after the Restauration, was by no means to be procured. There is an inferior sort of Compounders, commonly call'd petty Compounders; and these are such as have five shillings per annum, or upwards, according to the Rules and Conditions above-mentioned.

It was intended at first to distinguish such as were Created from those that Proceeded regularly; but the unhappy circumstances the University was brought into by the power and insolence of her Roman Intruders (who were ready to catch at every shadow of Reason for invading our Degrees as well as our Fellowships) made it seem more advisable to put all persons down in one and the same manner, and without any such note of Distinction.

Some few things more are to be remarked here relating to this present publication. viz.

1. That few Cambridge men are to be found in this Catalogue, except some persons of Quality, and such others as resided with us for some time; because by their Incorporation here they acquire no new Right or Privilege in respect of their Qualifications and Station in the Kingdom: but it being otherwise with the members of all foreign Universities, care has been taken that none of them be omitted.

2. Altho' Jo. does generally denote John, yet because it may be intended for Joseph, Jonas, Jonathan &c. the the like being alſo obſervable of ſome other Chriſtian-names: for prevention therefore of Miſtakes no more is put down of ſuch names than we find written by the Proceeder himſelf. And for the ſame reaſon ſince Jac. Jacob. and even Jacobus may ſignify Jacob as well as James; where we have no certainty of the Engliſh name, it was judged more ſafe to make uſe of the Latin.

3. It is obſervable that not only the neareſt Relations, but ſometimes the ſame Perſons do write their names differently for different Degrees, therefore whatever error or uncertainty may ariſe upon ſuch account, it muſt not be imputed to the Publiſher hereof: and the ſame may be ſaid of any miſtake that relates to the ſpelling of ſuch Sirnames as depend upon other authority than that of the Subſcription Books, where we have them under the hands of the Proceeders themſelves.

4. Where ſeveral men bear the ſame Sirname, the Catalogue runs double, viz. both upon that and the Chriſtian name; and where both names are exactly the ſame, ſuch perſons are placed in the order in which they Proceeded.

5. M. A. Signifies Maſter of Arts, D. D. Doctor of Divinity, B. D. Batchelor of Divinity, D. C. L. Doctor of Civil Law, (our Statutes and preſent Conſtitution having only degrees in Civil Law, altho' ſome men write themſelves D. L. L, that is Doctors of both Laws viz. Canon and Civil) B. C. L. Batchelor of Civil Law, D. M. Doctor of Medecin, commonly (tho' improperly) called Doctor of Phyſick, B. M. Batchelor of Medecin or Phyſick, D. Muſ. Doctor of Muſick.

6. As for the other Abbreviations which relate to the ſeveral Houſes, they are ſo full and intelligible of themſelves, ſelves, that they need no explanation; only it may be obſerved that Chr. Ch. ſignifies Chriſt Church College, generally called ſimply Chriſt Church, without the Addition of College. And ſo we find it frequently written, which is not uſual as to other Houſes, altho' in our ordinary Diſcourſe the ſingle names Oriel, Exeter, Lincoln, &c. ſuffice to denote the ſeveral Colleges.
